STATEMENT

OF THE

TERMS OF ADMISSION,

COURSE OF STUDY, &C.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

For admission to the Freshman Class, candidates are examined in Andrews and Stoddard's Latin Grammar, Cicero's Select Orations, Virgil, Sallust, Greek Grammar, Jacob's Greek Reader or Græca Minora, the four Gospels, Latin Prosody, Writing Latin, Arithmetic and Geography.

☞ To insure a correct pronunciation of Latin, candidates should early be made familiar with the rules contained, under the article "ORTHOEPY," in the Grammar. A particular attention to Latin Prosody and Scanning, in connexion with the study of Virgil, is also regarded as important. For writing Latin the use of Andrews's Latin Exercises is recommended.

For admission to an advanced standing, candidates, in addition to the requisitions for admission to the Freshman Class, must have attended to the several studies of the Class which they propose to join. Every student admitted to an advanced standing, (with the exception of those who come from other Colleges,) is required to pay a fee of $5,00, if he enter after the expiration of the fall term of the Freshman year; and of $10,00, if after the expiration of the fall term of the Sophomore year.

All candidates for admission to this College, must bring a certificate of good moral character; and, if from another College, of their regular dismission and good standing.

When a young man has been examined and admitted to College, he is required to attend the prescribed exercises, and is subject to the laws of the Institution; but he is considered to be on probation, till he shall have attended one public examination. After such examination, if the Faculty are satisfied with his deportment and improvement, he may be matriculated, and receive a certificate of his matriculation, upon his giving bonds and signing a declaration, agreeably to a prescribed form.

VACATIONS.

The first, from Commencement, four weeks;—the second, from the last Wednesday in November, one week;—the third, from the second Wednesday in February, two weeks;—and the fourth, from the third Wednesday in May, two weeks.

SESSIONS OR TERMS.

The Fall Term commences at the close of the Summer Vacation, and extends to the last Wednesday in November. The Winter Term extends from the first Wednesday in December to the second Wednesday in February. The Spring Term, from the fourth Wednesday in February to the third Wednesday in May. The Summer Term, from the close of the Spring Vacation, to the third Wednesday in August, the day of the annual Commencement.

WINTER TERM.

As a portion of the students are under the necessity of teaching school three months in a year, the studies of the Winter term are so arranged as not to interfere with their regular College course; nor interrupt the study and retard the improvement of those students who are not obliged to teach. During this term, all those students who are not excused for the purpose of teaching, and not actually engaged in that employment are required to be present, and attend on two exercises, either lectures or recitations each day, the Sabbath and Saturday afternoon excepted, when attendance on the usual religious exercises alone is required.

The following studies are designated for the Winter term, from which a selection is annually made for the current year, and duly announced in the Chapel.

For the First Division, composed of Seniors and Juniors.

1.—Greek Tragedies—Prometheus of Æschylus and Antigone of Sophocles; Græca Majora, Vol. II.—Hesiod, Apollonius Rhodius, Theocritus; Tacitus's Germany and Agricola; Leverett's Juvenal; Medea of Seneca; Captivi of Plautus; Quinctilian's Institutes.

- On Astronomy.
- On Civil Engineering.

To Seniors and Juniors in connexion.
- On Rhetoric, English Literature and Education.

On Moral and Intellectual Philosophy, familiar lectures are given to the Senior Class in connexion with their daily recitations.

DECLAMATION.

In addition to exercises in Elocution before the respective Instructors of the several classes, each member of the Senior Class, in regular succession, is required to speak before the whole College, once every term, after evening prayers; and twelve, at least, from the three lower classes, are designated to speak in the Chapel every Wednesday afternoon, subject to the critical remarks of the Faculty.

EXAMINATIONS.

There is annually a public examination of all the classes before the Faculty, a Committee of the Corporation, and such other gentlemen as please to attend, commencing on the third Tuesday in March; and another of the three lower classes, commencing on Tuesday of the week preceding the annual Commencement. The Seniors, as candidates for the degree of A. B., are likewise examined in the various branches of their College studies, six weeks before Commencement.

EXHIBITIONS.

By the Senior Class, on the last Wednesday in November. By the Junior Class, on the day preceding the third Wednesday in May. Exercises in Elocution, for the Parkerian Premiums, on the evening before the annual Commencement.

COMMENCEMENT.

On the third Wednesday in August.

EXPENSES.

The usual expenses of a liberal Education are considerably diminished in this College, by the ample library of the Beneficent Society, from which indigent students are gratuitously furnished with Text-Books, and other students, at a small expense. Connected with the Institution there is a Charity Fund, by which worthy indigent students are aided in paying their College bills. There is also a Fund, for the encouragement of literary industry, from which a few members of each Senior Class, distinguished for their attainments, and needing assistance, receive a donation.

The following statement embraces the principal expenses for each year, viz:

Tuition $5,	per quarter	$20
Room Rent $1,50 to $2,	"	7
Use of Library, 50 cents,	"	2
Repairs, sweeping, &c. $1,	"	4
Board in private families from $1,25 to $2, per week, average $1,50, amounting to about		50
		$83
Seniors and Juniors Laboratory Fee, 50 cents per quarter,		2
Charge for extra expenses of Winter Term,		2
Board for	"	15

PAYMENT OF BILLS.

At the close of the Quarter, on the third Wednesday of November, of Feb ruary, of May, and of August, bills are made out, and put into the hands of the Treasurer for collection. If in any case payment is not made immediately, interest is required. And, if any student suffers two bills to remain unpaid, without giving a satisfactory reason to the Treasurer, it becomes his duty to report the delinquency to the Faculty, and, if upon inquiry such delinquent student fails to give a satisfactory reason, for his neglect of payment, it becomes the duty of the Faculty to write to his parent or guardian, or deprive him of the privileges of the Institution.

☞ To prevent unnecessary expenses, as well as for other important purposes, it is recommended to parents to place their sons, especially if young, under the patronage of some gentleman in Middlebury, who will attend to the appropriation of their money, and the payment of their bills.
